VOL. I. GLENDALE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1906. NO. 51

OFFICIALS SWORN IN.

The new Board of Trustees for the city of Glendale met on Monday at 1 o'clock p. m., and were sworn in by City Recorder, Edgar Leavitt, after which the board proceeded to organize by electing Wilmot Parcher president of the board, which was a most wise selection, inasmuch as Mr. Parcher had served as president of the first board of trustees and had shown his fitness for this position by his fair and unbiased conduct in all proceedings.

Trustees Parcher, Anderson and Watson drew the short terms of two years and trustees Panset and Jennings drew the four year terms.

After organizing, the trustees went into a committee of the whole and considered the matter of awarding the contract for printing of ordinances. The Glendale News offered a bid of eight cents a line for first insertion of a brevier line and four cents a line for subsequent insertions.

After thoroughly inquiring into type measurements, etc., Trustee Anderson expressed himself as being in favor of the home paper doing all the city printing as far as possible, for he believed that the very best results would be obtained thereby. The entire committee seemed to concur in the views of Mr. Anderson.

On Tuesday the work of putting down walk and curbing on the west side of Glendale avenue, between 3rd and 4th streets, was commenced and the work was completed along the entire frontage owned by W. C. Fraley & Co. and M. L. Hackman, and just as soon as the contractors receive the necessary permission, the work will be continued and completed to 4th street. This good example should at once be followed by property owners on both sides of Glendale avenue, until cement walks and curbs are put in from Second street to Sixth street. Third and Fourth streets should also have cement walks at least from Glendale avenue to Brand Boulevard, and this work should be done at once so that visiting strangers may be induced to visit all sections of the town. Those property owners along the streets mentioned could not possibly adopt a better means of adding value to their property and also helping to advertise the town as a progressive community than by putting in these much needed improvements.

While Glendale is far ahead of any other suburban town in point of natural beauty, healthful climate and a productive soil, still all of these advantages alone will not cause a desirable class of people to make their homes here, but when our citizens show a proper spirit of enterprise by adding public improvements to what nature has already given this locality, then will the stranger seeking a suitable place to build a home, cast his lot among us. Fellow citizens, it behooves us to at once seriously consider the public improvement question and put the streets of Glendale in the very best condition possible. Every piece of walk put down in front of your property will add many times its cost to the value of the property along which it is laid, besides it helps to build up the town.

The many friends of Mr. J. H. Dodge will be pleased to know that he is steadily improving after his long illness at his home.

SAN FRANCISCO UTTERLY DEMOLISHED

Terrible Earthquake Visits San Fraucisco and Near-by Coast Towns Leaving a Trail of Death and Destruction in Its Wake—Aid is Being Rushed to Succor the Homeless.

What can be said by mortal man to portray the awfulness of the terrible calamity that has visited and destroyed the city of San Francisco and left death, despair and the destruction of property in its wake.

This terrible earthquake came to San Francisco on Wednesday morning, April 18, at 5:15 a. m. and proceeded to the utter demolition of the grandest city west of the Mississippi, and the terrible, unseen monster made its work most complete by securing the assistance of the fire demon, which ate away the vitals of those magnificent structures which withstood the force of the earthquake. And not being satisfied with destroying San Francisco, San Jose and other nearby smaller cities, met the same fate as did San Francisco and it is utterly impossible for humanity to realize the awfulness of this great calamity.

Just try to imagine what it would be to be awakened at 5:15 a. m., and made to flee for your life and in your flight you are unable to find a refuge of safety, and before the first danger is past a new and more terrible one is added, and one that takes not only human lives but sweeps away your every earthly possession. No wonder men who escape with their lives are made mad. The thoughts of the terrible sufferings of the victims of this terrible disaster is sickening and should cause every human being in the State of California to lend every assistance in his or her power to alleviate the sufferings of our most unfortunate brothers and sisters.

When the news reached Los Angeles and Southern California, immediate preparations were made for the relief of the survivors of the calamity and trains and boats, loaded with medicines, provisions and skilled help were dispatched to the scene of death and destruction.

There is hardly a family in Southern California but what has some friend or relative in San Francisco, and aside from a natural sympathy and pity for the sufferings in general, there is great anxiety on our part for the safety of those near and dear to us.

Individuals cannot, as yet, get messages through to the scene of disaster, and it will be days, and in some cases, weeks, before the fate of friends and relatives may be known.

As later reports come in, there is a feeling of relief, as it is believed that the loss of life will not be nearly so great as was at first estimated. Notwithstanding this fact, the holocaust is something terrible.

An Urgent Call

The call issued by the officers of the Tuesday Afternoon Club for cooperation in relieving the suffering in our sister city should be responded to by every individual in this community.

Never in the history of this country has any calamity been attended by so many adverse conditions and circumstances.

The destruction of the outlying country rendering aid from nearby places almost impossible, the wreckage of railways, rendering escape and assistance difficult, the threatened water famine and other deplorable conditions not necessary to recite, make the need for immediate assistance imperative. Our hearts have gone out to soldiers in battle and our hands have worked to alleviate their sufferings, but brave men can bear pain better than helpless women and children.

The library and reading room will be fittingly converted temporarily into a storeroom for the reception of clothing and necessary supplies.

Let every woman look through her house and set aside every article of clothing and necessity which can be spared and which can be conveniently packed and send at once to the reading room, where some one will be appointed to receive goods.

The Southern Pacific offers free transportation and the immediate necessities of the situation rdquire prompt and energetic action.

LILLIAN S. WELLS.

Call for Aid

The Tuesday Afternoon Club will receive contributions for San Francisco sufferers at the Library and Reading Room corner Third and E streets at all hours of the day.

Every individual and society is urged to send clothing and supplies to this place, where they will be boxed and forwarded at the earliest possible moment.

MRS. R. A. BLACKBURN, PRES.
MISS HELEN MCINTYRE, SEC.

The sale of lots in the Glendale Development Co.'s tract by the Erkenbrecher Syndicate is nearing the 100 mark and if the sales continue as lively for the next few weeks as they have during the past two weeks, it will not be long until the entire tract will be sold. Every inducement in the way of modern conveniences is being given purchasers of lots, and when this is combined with rich soil, a perfect climate, grand scenery, pure water and the best suburban street car service in Southern California, it is easy to understand why this property is selling so rapidly.

During the past several days the strawberries have been ripening rapidly and the Berry Growers' Association is now busily engaged in shipping and marketing the crop and the advantage of being organized as an association to care for the output is being demonstrated more clearly each successive season. It would seem a wise move for the growers to build a cannery for the preservation of the surplus crop.

The News office wishes to acknowledge the receipt of two magnificent bouquets, one of carnations and one of roses, the carnations coming from Mrs. Peck and the roses from Mrs Dodge. The flowers were most beautiful and fragrant, and the thoughtful kindness of the donors is appreciated in the fullest measure.

The Glendale Sanitarium is rushing work on the new elevator which is being built for the convenience of the institutions many patrons. Many important improvements are being made in a general way in and around the Sanitarium building.

Mrs. Ida Strong's notion store and ice cream parlor will be opened for the public Saturday evening. This opening should appeal particularly to the ladies of this community and there will no doubt be a large attendance.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES.

COMPLIMENTARY TO MISS KAPUS.

Miss Hickman entertained at her home, "Palm Villa," Thursday afternoon, with a "china shower" complimentary to Miss Grace Kapus, who leaves shortly for her home at Elgin, Ill., where she will wed Mr. Olaf Andressen. "Palm Villa" was most artistically decorated throughout with a graceful arrangement of orange blossoms, bridal wreaths and bride roses, all suggestive of the approaching nuptials of the fair hostess of this delightful social event.

The score cards were dainty white slippers, which had been fastened to the draperies and bric-a-brac throughout the rooms. Miss Kapus kept her score on a white shoe, doubtless a facsimile of the shoe worn by the groom to be, Mr. Andressen.

After a merry game of "hunt the slipper" in which each guest secured her score card, the guests enjoyed an amusing contest of a floral wedding. At the conclusion of the contest and just as the prizes were to be awarded, Miss Kapus, by a clever ruse, was invited to a seat in the library. Through the archway appeared Master Eugene and Marjorie Imler, bearing a trunk, which had been placarded with pictures of brides, grooms, weddings, cakes, etc. Having arrived at the chair where Miss Kapus was seated they placed the trunk at her feet and making their adieus, departed.

Then Miss Kapus realizing that she had secured the first prize, stooped and raising the lid of the trunk beheld an array of dainty and beautiful china which filled the trunk completely, surrounded by orange blossoms.

In the dining room which was decorated in bride roses, Mrs. John Hobbs presided at the punch bowl, and here dainty refreshments were served.

The place cards were egg-shaped, on one corner of which was a tiny rabbit, for luck, surrounded by grains of rice, suggestive of the approaching nuptials.

The guests who were the first to enter the dining room, were styled the bridal party, followed by the matrons of honor and lastly the ushers. Mrs. David Imler assisted the hostess in the entertainment of the guests who included Misses Freda Borthick, Hazel Kapus, Harriet Meyers, Madeline Malcom, Sara Carmack and Gertrude Bond.

Mmes. E. K. Daniels, Morris Schick, Frank Marsh, C. G. Wilkinson, Frank Storer, J. H. Webster, W. A. Thompson, H. A. Smith, L. C. Rice, Charles Murray, J. R. Maxwell, William Malcom, J. Arthur Logan, John Kirkham, A. W. Hough, L. E. Engelhardt, Hal H. Davenport, A. W. Collins, C. R. Carmack, H. E. Brewster, W. O. Borthick, M. E. Bond, Edward Ayres and W. H. Bullis.

The soliciting committee of the Womans Tuesday Afternoon Club secured $100 this morning which was forwarded to the San Francisco relief fund this afternoon.

HOOKED BY A COW.

The three-year-old daughter of J. H Mathewson, who resides on West Park avenue, while crossing the street was severely hooked by a cow belonging to Charles Fishel, which was picketed on the street. The point of the horn entered the neck of the little girl, four inches from the jugular vein, making a deep incision. Dr. J. Oscar Garmon dressed the wound. The patience and courage of the little sufferer was quite marvelous, while undergoing the necessary surgical operation.

Mr. Patterson, who was so seriously injured by falling from a twenty-foot ladder while painting the O. W. Goding residence, is improving rapidly.

TROPICO LIBRARY.

Miss Mable Preintiss of Sacramento, the state library organizer met with the Tropico Library Board at the residence of Mrs. D. H. Imler, Tuesday afternoon. The secretary of the library board reported seventy borrowers and that the travelling library, as furnished by the state, is inadequate for the demand.

Through the efforts of the Thursday Afternoon Club of Tropico, and several public-spirited citizens, a library of one hundred volumes will be added to the travelling library. Miss Prentiss will aid in placing these books in the town library by supplying the necessary cards and printed matter.

INTERESTING LECTURE.

The third event in the series of entertainments being given by the Ladies' Aid of the Tropico Methodist Episcopal church, occurred at J. A. Logan's Hall, Tuesday evening, when Rev. Robert Fisher, pastor of St. James Methodist church, of Los Angeles, delivered a lecture, "The Red Dog."

This lecture which has rendered Rev. Fisher noted on the platform as a lecturer, was amusing as well as very interesting and was most enthusiastically received by a very appreciative audience.

JAPANESE NIGHT SCHOOL.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church, a night school for the Japanese boys has been opened in the auditorium of the church, sessions being held Monday and Friday nights.

Rev. Pittenger conducts the classes assisted by Mrs. Pittenger. A large class is present each session and much interest is being manifested by the students.

Mr. T. O. Pierce, Sr., and wife, of Pittsburg, Kansas, are the guests of their son, T. O. Pierce, Jr., and family. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, Sr., expect to remain in California for a year, and of course that means they will locate here permanently. O. O. Pierce of Banning, son to the elder couple, visited his brother Tom and his parents here the early part of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, Sr., were given a reception at Pasadena by their children one day last week, and it was an occasion of great happiness to the children and their parents.

HARDWARE STORE FOR GLENDALE.

E. V. Parker, who formerly resided in this vicinity for a number of years, and Jared Menger, of Los Angeles, will open up a hardware establishment in a new building which is being erected for their special use by Watson & Son just west of the Watson Block, near the corner of Fourth street and Glendale avenue.

These gentlemen come to Glendale well recommended, and are said to have a thorough knowledge of every branch of the hardware business. Their business is an incorporated institution and will be known as the Glendale Hardware Co.

Besides carrying a full and complete line of hardware, this firm will have cement, paints, oils and roofing, and will be prepared to supply all kinds of builders' hardware, cutlery, etc. Glendale will no doubt support a good hardware establishment such as these gentlemen propose establishing.

CLASSMATES TENDER RECEPTION TO BRIDE TO BE.

Saturday evening the Alumni entertained with a supper in honor of Miss Fay Goode, at her home on E street, before her marriage and departure for the north.

The classes of '04 and '05 were of eight girls, so outside boys were invited. The large rooms were redolent with the perfumes of orange blossom, and roses, supper being served in the dining room, the table was decorated in smilax and orange blossoms with the place card being bell shaped with hand painted scenery.

After supper dancing and progressive games were enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Fay Goode, Helen Barry, Nola Lyman, Mae Cornwell, Lucy Bettannier, Faith Sence, Clara Marshall, Messrs. Milton Robinson, Mr. McFadden, Jean Bettannier, Will Fanset, Earle Bond, Arthur Barry and Hugh Cornwell.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

L. C. Carlin of Burbank, while loading berry crates on his wagon at the berry growers' shipping depot on Brand boulevard on Tuesday, met with a painful and serious accident by being thrown to the ground and the wheels of his wagon passing over his body. In loading, a box fell on one of the horses which became frightened and the team ran away injuring Mr. Carlin and wrecking the wagon. Dr. Bryant was called and gave the necessary relief to the injured man who was removed to his home in Burbank.

Up to time of going to press, the situation at San Francisco was about as bad as it is possible to be. It was reported at 11 a. m. that the fire was under control, but at 3 p. m., the report came that the flames had again broken out with renewed vigor.

GLENDALE DINNER PARTY.

Mrs. H. E. Gulvin was hostess at a very charmingly appointed dinner party given at her home on Sixth street, Thursday evening.

The table was artistically decorated in crimson geraniums.

Covers were laid for Mrs. J. J. Duane and Miss Vivian Duane of Los Angeles, Mmes. Thomas Gillette and Tom Gillette, Jr.

Ezra F. Parker is building a log cabin real estate office on his lot at the corner of Brand Boulevard and Lomita Ave., and the structure, when finished, will be a most novel and attractive sight. Mr. Parker has just completed the construction of a modern cottage on Lomita Ave., between Brand Boulevard and Glendale Ave., and he thinks this the finest section of the whole of Southern California.

The terrible disaster at San Francisco has given ghouls an opportunity to rob the dead; but from all accounts these fiends are meeting with short shrift from the soldiers.

A person who escaped from the Palace hotel during the earthquake says that the streets of San Francisco swelled and subsided very much after the manner of ocean billows.

At 5:30 p. m., the information comes that the dead at San Francisco is estimated to be about 500 and the report says that about 100,000 of the sufferers have gotten across the bay to Oakland and other near-by towns. It is thought that within the next two or three days the situation will be well in hand and that the unfortunate ones will be well cared for.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20.—Secretary Shaw was notified this morning that the San Francisco Sub-Treasury had been destroyed, but $30,000,000 in the vault was saved. It is guarded by soldiers. The message is signed by J. M. McClure, book-keeper, who apparently did good work in the absence of his superiors. The department is convinced that Sub-Treasurer Jacobs and Cashier Burns both lost their lives.

The J. M. McClure above referred to is a brother to E. M. McClure of this paper.

GLENDALE

To a person accustomed to and appreciating the advantages of the city, but who prefers a life in the country for considerations of health, pleasure or profit, the ideal location for a home is found in a pleasant country neighborhood within a few minutes' ride of the city.

This close association of city and country gives to property in the suburbs of a large and rapidly growing city a value which is difficult to estimate in dollars and cents. It is a consideration which appeals forcibly alike to the home-seeker who is fortunately above the necessity of taking into account the question of a financially profitable investment; to the tiller of the soil, who must necessarily figure upon the associated ideas of a productive soil, favorable climatic conditions, and a near-by market; and finally to the investor looking with speculative eye upon the promise made by a particular locality in regard to the probable increase of values in the near future.

To all of the above classes, GLENDALE appeals with peculiar force given by its unique merits and varied attractions. In an air line it is six miles from the business center of Los Angeles, and about three miles from the northern boundary of that city.

RAILROADS

The Glendale branch of the Salt Lake Railroad Compauy, starting from its depot on First street, passes through East Los Angeles, along the base of the low hills on the northern limits of the city paralleling the line of the Southern Pacific road until it reaches Glendale avenue at its junction with the San Fernando road, where it proceeds northward through Glendale to its present terminns, Verdugo Park.

The Huntington Electric Railway system has recently completed a double-track line connecting Los Angeles and Glendale, first class in its construction, equipment and service, following a route which for scenic beauty is probably unequalled by any ride of similar length in Southern California.

Library Notes

Miss Mabel Prentiss, the library organizer of the State Traveling Library, spent Wednesday in Glendale visiting with old friends and noting the many signs of progress recently inaugurated. During the afternoon Miss Prentiss conferred with the library board in regard to a suitable loan system for the books owned by the club and other matters pertaining to the library. Since Glendale is incorporated, the steps necessary for securing a public library supported by the city are quite simple and will no doubt be taken as soon as public sentiment is ripe for it.

The influence of a public library in forming the chrracters and principles and educating the rising generation for good, intelligent citizens is of vast importance.

Miss Prentiss is thoroughly conversant with her work and was at one time in the Los Angeles library and expressed herself well pleased with the location and equipment of the Glendale reading room and library and with the large percentage of youthful borrowers.

A very handsome copy of John L. Staddard's illustrated "Our Country" has been presented to the library by Rachel M. Sherer. Eleven volumes, including Oliver Wendell Holmes' poems, have been given during the week by Miss Bulkley. Miscellaneous magazines have been donated by Mrs. Barager.

During next week may be seen at the reading room some festoons of Florida moss, or, more properly, Tillandsia, and also a very rare and dainty little plant and flowers, Pyxie dan thera barbulata, found only in this country in the southern part of New Jersey and a few places in the Carolinas. It is found in but one other place in the world.
